

Volckrick & Associates is an independent Luxembourg business law firm advising its clients in the fields of Funds & Investment Management, Banking & Financial Services, Corporate/ M&A, Bank Lending & Securitization, Real Estate, Private Equity, Insurance and Insolvency & Restructuring.

The firm was created in 2018 by like-minded experienced lawyers committed to delivering high quality, pragmatic and tailored advice.

We are close to our clients and committed to create value and help them achieve their objectives. We are always prepared to go the extra mile and push hard to deliver results.

More than a law firm, we form a dynamic, tight-knit community, working hard and playing even harder together.

We have continued growing despite the COVID pandemic and are seeking to recruit a number of ambitious people in Luxembourg.

We are looking for people sharing our values: excellence, commitment, involvement, dedication to clients and respect.

Lawyer in Banking and Finance (M/F)

Your profile:

- You hold a Master Degree in Business/ Economic/ Financial Law (LLM or similar master degree will be considered as an advantage) and are a qualified lawyer, registered at the Luxembourg bar or at another European bar;
- You have at least 4-5 years' experience practicing Banking and Finance law in Luxembourg. An additional experience in Investment Funds/ Asset Management or Corporate/ M&A will be considered as an asset;
- You are solution-oriented and conscientious, and you are proud of delivering high quality legal advice. An outgoing personality, pro-activity and efficiency are qualities we value highly;
- You have excellent communication and teamwork skills;
- You have a perfect knowledge of both oral and written English and French. Knowledge of any other EU-spoken language will be regarded as a plus.

Your role:

- You will be responsible for advising institutional, professional and HNWI clients on a variety of legal issues;
- You will liaise directly with the partner and influence the decision-making process;
- You will work closely with your clients, anticipate their needs and deliver out-of-the-box solutions;
- Your advice will be pragmatic and tailored, and shall take into account both legal and commercial issues as well as your client's objectives and constraints;
- You will be in charge of contributing to the training of junior lawyers;
- You will be chiefly involved in the business development efforts of the firm.

What we offer:

- Benefit from a lot of autonomy in your work;
- Work on interesting files across different legal fields - we promote a client-centric rather than silo approach;
- Enjoy a superior work-life balance; we are trusted legal advisors, not robots and our firm is not a legal factory!
- Become a member of a friendly tight-knit community – we work hard and play even harder together!
- Be responsible of a small team and in-charge of responding to their enquiries;
- Benefit from a highly competitive compensation package.

We offer excellent career development, an inclusive working culture and the opportunity to work in a progressive and challenging work environment.

We aim at creating an exciting and rewarding place to work.

We encourage continual professional development and are keen to promote our people based on merits!

If you are interested in this position, please send your application to Mathieu Volckrick, Managing Partner, via jobs.lu.

All applications will be treated strictly confidentially.