

Job Title: Intern

Contract: Intern (Stagiaire)

Location: Luxembourg

Job Specification

Dechert is a global business law firm advising and assisting asset managers, financial institutions, and corporate clients with all the challenges and challenges they face in conducting their business and managing their capital—from high-risk litigation and complex transactions to sophisticated regulatory matters. Our 1,000 lawyers in 16 offices across Europe, the United States, the Middle East, and Asia focus on the financial services, private equity, private credit, real estate, life sciences, and technology sectors.

The Dechert's Luxembourg office is seeking a full-time Intern for six months for its Corporate and Finance Team.

MISSIONS:

Join a dynamic team specializing in international corporate and finance transactions. If you are looking for a young, international, and multicultural work environment in a major American firm where you will be required to work with our different offices in a wide variety of economic sectors, in English, French and German, our team may be for you.

The intern, truly integrated into the team, will be responsible for assisting lawyers of the corporate and finance team in all stages of processing cases and in particular:

- to carry out legal research within the framework of files; and
- to assist in the preparation of (i) various types of corporate documents, including but not limited to articles of incorporation, corporate resolutions, shareholders' agreements, intercompany-loan documents, subscription and contribution agreements, sale and purchase agreements, any relevant kinds of draft notarial deeds, and (ii) transaction documents for financing transactions on a broad spectrum, including but not limited to board resolutions, manager certificate, legal opinions.

PROFILE:

Our team is looking for high-potential candidates with an entrepreneurial spirit who can thrive in a demanding and dynamic work environment. Teamwork is a key priority. We are committed to involving our interns as much as possible in our projects and encourage them to participate in the life of our teams and the firm as if they were already employees within our organization.

Your advantages for joining us:

- You are a student lawyer, holder of a Master II and/or a graduate of a leading business law school.
- Ideally but not necessarily, you have a dual degree in law and economics or experience abroad.
- You must have already completed one or more internships in a law firm.
- Excellent command of spoken and written English is essential.
