THE ROLE

You will manage a varied litigation caseload and advise clients across the full lifecycle of disputes — from early strategy through negotiations, written proceedings, and hearings. Your work may span:

- Corporate and commercial litigation
- Civil liability and contractual disputes
- Employment law disputes
- Construction and real estate litigation
- Tax litigation

YOUR PROFILE

- Avocat à la Cour admitted to the Luxembourg Bar
- Proven track record in litigation, with strong drafting and advocacy skills
- Comfortable working with autonomy while collaborating closely with colleagues and clients
- Sound judgment, rigorous attention to detail, and a practical, solution-oriented mindset

LANGUAGES

Required: Fluent French and English (written and spoken)

Strong asset: German

WHAT WE OFFER

- Substantive, high-quality work across several contentious practice areas
- Direct client exposure and genuine hands-on responsibility from day one
- A collaborative, pragmatic team that values good judgment over hierarchy
- Full-time and part-time arrangements available
- A family-friendly environment that supports a sustainable work life balance
