

Senior Associate

Corporate and M&A - Permanent contract Luxembourg

About us

We redefine what is possible and shape the future. Together. Everywhere.

Dentons is the world's largest global, polycentric law firm with more than 12,500 lawyers and professionals in more than 160 locations in over 80 countries. We have a strong reputation for acting on the most significant, complex and high value deals, working with specialists across the firm to ensure that all our clients' requirements are met to the highest standards.

Our Luxembourg office offers a comprehensive range of advisory services across all areas of business law to both domestic and international clients operating in a diverse array of sectors. We deliver fully integrated legal support with particular expertise in corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, venture capital, tax, investment funds, banking and finance, structured finance, real estate, as well as restructuring, insolvency, and bankruptcy.

In addition, we foster a working environment where everyone is empowered to reach their full potential, supported by an inclusive culture that values, encourages, and respects individual differences. We are fully transparent about our strategy and actively involve every member of the firm in shaping our collective future. We are also deeply engaged in a comprehensive ESG approach in Luxembourg, integrating sustainability considerations into both our daily work and our broader operational environment.

About the role

You will join our Corporate and M&A team and support the practice across a broad spectrum of corporate transactions — ranging from private and public M&A to complex joint ventures, strategic alliances, and private equity investments — while also advising on corporate structures, governance matters and management incentive plans.

About you

You are a dynamic, proactive and motivated professional with:

- A degree in Law
- 4-6 years of experience in Corporate/ M&A within a Luxembourg law firm
- Fully qualified in Luxembourg law and admitted to the Luxembourg bar (list I or list IV)
- Fluent in English and French; proficiency in German and Luxembourgish is considered an asset
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- A collaborative mindset and the ability to work effectively within a team
- A quick learning capacity combined with a strong drive for excellence

You will be a key member of our ambitious and highly recognised Corporate and M&A team. We offer an excellent opportunity to develop your skills, grow within the firm, and build a meaningful long-term career, supported by a competitive compensation package.
